In his own words

I was raised by christian values, but I don't have any religious beliefs. I love watching and playing pretty much any team sports. I also love listening to music and making music myself, especially when I play in a band together with my friends. I am a very social person who hasn't got any problems with meeting new people. By giving me the opportunity to spend a year in the USA, my future host family fulfills a dream I had for many years, that's why I couldn't be more thankful and motivated for this opportunity.

Short answer questions

Why do you want to spend a year abroad?

I became a big fan of the USA mostly through social media and watching American sports. Therefore, I am really interested in learning new things about the American way of life and culture. I also love to meet new people and travelling, so doing an exchange year is the best way of combining all

Why do you think you will be a successful exchange student?

I am very open-minded, polite and adventurous. Also, spending a year in the USA is an experience I was hoping to make for many years now, and I can't wait for it to start!

Short answer questions

What are your favorite activities and why?

I love to play the drums in a school orchestra and in a band together with my friends. I also love to play and watch sports, especially Soccer, Basketball and American Football. I play Basketball in a team in my hometown. Whenever I have free time, I like to hang out with my friends as well, in What qualities of your family life would you most like to share with your host family?

Just spending time together and exchanging experiences is a big part of family life in my opinion. I would love to show my host family a bit of my German culture as well, e. g. by cooking typical German meals.

Please describe any awards you have received or any achievements that you are proud of Winning a championship with my Basketball team in 2014 is an achievement I am really proud of. I also had a small gig together with three friends in a drum quartet, which was a great experience as well.

What are your goals in life?

I don't necessarily need to be rich or successful in life, but I want to be happy with the way I live. I also want to have kids later in my life because I think having children is one of the most precious experiences you can achieve in a lifetime.
